The Nation: ran Against an Easy Argument in the Ohio Town.

The Wheeling base ball team and about 160 of its friends journeyed to Massillon vesterday morning via a spe-Wheeling, railroad, which was furnished by Traveling Passenger Agent O. R. A dozen cars were furnished in anticipation of a larger crowd, but the short notice given and the indifferent showing of the Natiors against the ent showing of the Natiors against the Youngstown team hast week contributed to a disappointingly small turn-out from this city and vicinity.

However, Massillon made up for the local deficiency by turning out 1,009 strong to see the Massillons defeated by the Wheeling leaguers. Cummings and Dolan pitched for the Wheelings, and both did well, the semi-professionals getting only six bits, while the Wheelings hif safely twelve times. Latimer played right field, and led at the bat, with four hits, one of which was a homer on the first ball pitched in the game. Hunt caught a gilt-edged game, and it is conceded that he is developgame. Hunt caught a gut-cog and it is conceded that he is develop ing into a valuable man. The score R H I DAYTON, May 7 .- Rain interfered this afternoon and prevented the game scheduled between the Old Soldlers and the Mansfields. The latter team left to-night for Wheeling.

BASE BALL COMMENT.

The Mansfield team arrives from Dayton this morning and will open a three-game series with the Wheelings at the Island park this afternoon. It is likely Wells will be put in the box for the locals. It is not known who Lowney will put on the slab

The score card being put out by F. W Hayes is the best ever published for a local team.

Dolan showed good form at Massillon yesterday and will probably be added to the local team's pitching corps.

The knockers were in their glory on Saturday. They could see no redeeming feature in the Wheeling team's work. But it's dollars to doughnuts the whole knocker crowd will be enthusing before the week's over—it's the way of knockers. Two or three errors knock all the wind out of them; likewise a brilliant finish or a bit of fine pitching sends them up into the clouds of satisfaction and enthuslasm.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

A BRILLIANT FINISH. CINCINNATI, May 7.—Broitenstein was invincible to-day until the ninth linning when two singles, an error and Blake's double netted three runs, and won the game. The locals hit Powell enfely five times in the first inning, but found him troublesome after that. Rain kept the attendance down to 4,702 Score:

Batteries, Breitenstein and Petz; Po-and Crigor. Umpires, Swartwood Warner. Time of game, 1:50.

BOXING.

Mr. P. J. Murphy, representing the Metropolitan club, returned from Pittsburgh yesterday, where he completed the details for the Aymer-Scanlon contest, on May 15. Great interest is evinced to the match in Pittsburgh, where the principals are well known, and an excursion train will bring down a host Charles Aymer is the son of a wealthy New Kensington citizen, and is said to be of Itulian descent. Scanlos is a protege of Jem Hall, and are matched at 163 pounds. For a pre-liminary a colored chap named Smith, of the South Side, and Chippy Chap-line, will mix it. They will go ten rounds.

The Drovers' Home club room in North Benwood, will be fitted out in proper style for the Jimmy Fogarty-George Carle contest, which takes place next Saturday evening. An elevated stage, with an eighteen foot ring, will be constructed this week. Fogarts has begun training and will do hard work this week to get himself in shape. The Benwood boy is working at the club room, and he is certain to be the favorite. His friends are confident of his making a good showing against his older opponent. Benwood mill men will attend the bout in force.
